

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

CONFIDENTIALCOPY NO. 8C.I.G. 724 April 1946CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUPPOLICY ON CLEARANCE OF PERSONNEL
FOR DUTIES WITH CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUPMemorandum by the Director of Central Intelligence

1. The President's letter of 22 January 1946 charges the National Intelligence Authority and the Director of Central Intelligence with responsibility for fully protecting intelligence sources and methods in connection with their activities.
2. The Central Intelligence Group should establish standards and requirements with regard to clearance of personnel for duties with the C.I.G. to assure the highest degree of security to its operations.
3. Paragraph 3 of N.I.A. Directive No. 1 provides a procedure by which the necessary directive can be published and carried out by unanimous approval of the Director of Central Intelligence and the Intelligence Advisory Board, without action by the National Intelligence Authority.
4. Enclosed is a draft directive, making necessary provisions for establishing uniform clearance standards and procedures. If all members of the Intelligence Advisory Board concur in the draft without substantial change, a meeting will not be necessary. It is recommended that the directive be approved, and that each member of the Intelligence Advisory Board arrange for necessary implementation by his department.

SIDNEY W. SOUERS,

Director.
